It's a Wrap!

Wow, what a fantastic year it's been for Tranby, from all of the accomplishments and hard work of our amazing students to the fabulous revamp of the Tranby buildings and gardens and everything else that's been going on in the background.

We look back on the year of 2016 with fond memories, and look forward to welcoming in a very exciting year ahead!

Congratulations go to Tranby's very own Chairperson Kristy Masella who won the Diversity category in the 100 Women of Influence Awards held recently at Sydney Town Hall.

The awards are sponsored by Westpac and the Australian Financial Review. More information about all the winners can be found here.

We are delighted to announce that we were awarded special recognition in the Indigenous Governance Awards 2016 held this month.

This honour recognises that Tranby National Indigenous Adult Education and Training is supporting the self Strait Islander peoples.

“With culture at the heart of everything they do, the inspiring work of the Indigenous Governance Awards participants represents the best of what is happening across Australia. The Indigenous Governance Awards are a celebration of their success.”
- Professor Mick Dodson, Chair, Indigenous Governance Awards.

A special congratulations go to Laurence (Bud) Crawford who was the recipient of the Kevin Cook Award in recognition of his willingness to grow and share his learning in his community.

Well done Bud!

2017 IS A VERY SPECIAL YEAR FOR TRANBY

It's our 60th Birthday!

WE LOOK FORWARD TO SHARING SOME VERY SPECIAL EVENTS WITH YOU ALL

Tranby is incredibly grateful to all of our volunteers and secondees for all of their tremendous efforts this year. We appreciate all of your dedication, time and commitment and want you to know that Tranby is going from strength to strength with all of your help. We look forward to welcoming you all back in 2017 for a year of exciting events and opportunities.
