

Board Bio – Hagbarth Strom

Hagbarth “Haggy” Strom is a commercial lawyer currently working for an ASX-listed finance company, Perpetual Limited. He has worked as a lawyer since 2008, with stints at Clayton Utz and French bank Societe Generale. Prior to this he had a career in consulting, working with Wall Street banks in New York.

Haggy is originally from Norway. After a somewhat nomadic upbringing he moved to Australia in 2003. He holds a Bachelor of International Relations from Brown University, USA, and a Bachelor of Law from the University of Sydney.

Since moving to Australia Haggy has been keenly interested in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander affairs. He completed a legal internship with a Native Title Representative Body in WA in 2006. In 2015 he participated in the Jawun programme, spending several months in a remote Cape York community, working closely with traditional owners on a strategic plan for management of their lands.

Haggy is passionate about the power of education to effect change. He is seeking a position on the board in order to engage with community and contribute to the ongoing success of Tranby.
